Get Adopted - The Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults

Whenever an adoption story pops up on Facebook, tears are going to be shed. There is something about the joy of the parents who have waited so long for their child to come home and the children who are overjoyed to know their mom and dad, brothers and sisters. These are moments of feeling complete, wanted, and loved without reservations.

Adoption is the primary metaphor St. Paul uses for God's love for each of us in today's second reading from Romans. Just like those parents who yearn to make that child their son or daughter, God yearns for us and wants us to know we are loved and wanted by God. God invites us to become part of God's family permanently through baptism – to feel overjoyed at knowing our Parent who gave God's only son in order to make us part of the family for all eternity.

We want you to become a brother or sister in our family by becoming a Catholic Christian. To learn more contact Shannon at 317-585-1257 x 102 or shannon@hspgeist.org.

Catholic 101: The Holy Spirit

The Holy Spirit is the third Person of the Trinity and the most High God. But most of us don't know what exactly the Church says about who the Spirit is. For more information call (317) 585-1257 x 102 or email shannon@hspgeist.org.
