Do Catholics Worship Saints? Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults

Short answer – No! Only God can and should be worshipped. When we pray to saints we are asking them to pray for us, just like we would ask our friends and family to pray for us. Since we believe the saints are living in heaven with God, we know that even though we can't see them, they are still a part of the Church and praying for the Church. When we "pray to the saints" we're asking other members of God's family to intercede with God to help us.

If you are not Catholic and would like to learn more about the saints, Mary, or the Catholic faith, consider joining us at RCIA. To find out more, contact Shannon Schmidt at 317-585-1257 x 102 or shannon@hspgeist.org.

Stephen Ministry

All Souls' Day is this Thursday, November 2. On this day we pray for, and think about, our loved ones and friends who have died. After the 8:15 am and 7 pm Masses there will be a reception in the Social Hall sponsored by Stephen Ministry and Bereavement Ministry. Grieving is difficult and we each follow our own individual journeys---there is no right and wrong way to grieve. Keep in mind that a Stephen Minister is available to meet with you one-on-one if you would like to talk about how you have been feeling as you find yourself on your grieving journey.

To find out more about Stephen Ministry, call the parish office at 317-849-9245 and ask to speak to Fr. Dan, Fr. Coady, or to Pastoral Associates Kathy Gurzynski or Greg Bowman. Kathy or Greg may be reached at 585-1257 (Kathy ex. 120, Greg 118) or email Kathy@hspgeist.org or Greg@hspgeist.org. You may also go to the Holy Spirit website and click on Stephen Ministry.

Over the last several years our parish has supported the St. Vincent de Paul food pantry in Noblesville. There is a continuing need for donations of nonperishable food with less fortunate families who are unemployed and/or need assistance. Staples are always needed; such as, canned meats, canned fruits, soups, pancake mix & syrup, and peanut butter & jelly. Currently donations of baby formula would be greatly appreciated. Thank you in advance for leaving food contributions in the gathering space. "Like 'St. Vincent de Paul-Noblesville, IN' on Facebook".
